NY Editors, Authors
Give Hands-On Guidance
In Online Writing Classes

Spring classes are beginning in Authorlink.com's online Virtual Classroom, where writers can interact directly with publishing pros about the craft of writing. All classes are taught by New York editors and highly successful, published authors. In addition to group sessions, each course offers one-on-one instruction. Among upcoming sessions are:

--SHIMMERING IMAGES, THE STORIES THAT DRIVE MEMOIR (March 26, 2008, one night only!) Instructor: Lisa Dale Norton, UCLA Extension Writers' Program Instructor, national speaker, and published author. Her latest book, SHIMMERING IMAGES: A HANDY LITTLE GUIDE TO WRITING MEMOIR will be released in Spring 2008 by St. Martin's Press. (www.lisadalenorton.com)

--FINDING YOUR NOVEL'S VOICE; MAKING CHARACTERS LIVE: HANDS-ON GUIDANCE FROM A NEW YORK EDITOR. You hold the key to stories that define your life! Starts: April 5, 2008 Instructor: Stacey Barney, Editor, G.P.Putnam/Penguin Group, USA

--ADVANCED NOVEL WRITING (Class starts March 15, 2008. Contact us for late enrollment. Another session starting soon). Instructor: Bonnie Hearn Hill, bestselling thriller author. This class is highly praised.

--RE-VISION MEANS RE-SEEING (Coming in May, 2008) Instructor: Lisa Lenard Cook, author of the forthcoming book, MIND OF YOUR STORY
