

Dennie Heye (dennie@heye.nl) is knowledge and information manager for the Human Resources IT division at Royal Dutch Shell in the Netherlands. He is responsible for the definition and implementation of a strategy covering the technical, content and organizational aspects of knowledge and information management. Prior to that he was involved in establishing a global virtual library and providing consultancy on taxonomies, document management and search engine requirements.

He is the international relations chair for the division of Petroleum and Energy Resources of SLA (Special Libraries Association). In 2007 he won the Quantum2 InfoStar award and he was elected SLA Europe Information Professional in 2008 as a recognition for his professional leadership and initiative in the information management profession.

He has published a book: "Characteristics of the Successful Twenty-First Century Information Professional" (Chandos, 2006) about the expanded skill set required for information professionals. He has written and presented about a wide range of topics in information and knowledge management, which can be found on his website (<http://dennie.heye.nl>)

+++++

Kizza Stephen (kizzay2000@yahoo.com) is an Assistant Librarian for the Ministry of Energy and Mineral Resources (MEMD) Resource Center in Uganda. He has worked as a solo librarian for the last 5 years. He started the Resource Center in 2004. He is responsible for the day to day running of the Resource Center.

Prior to joining the Ministry, Stephen worked briefly for Gamut International, Inc, an automobile and machinery importing company as an Assistant Country Representative in Uganda between 2000 and 2004.

Between 1990 and 2000 Stephen worked as teacher and High School librarian in the now Limpopo Province of South Africa.

Stephen's working life started in 1987 as licensed teacher and in charge of library at the Apostles of Jesus Junior Seminary, Kiserian, Nairobi, Kenya.

Challenged by both the fast developments in the digital age, the network peers in the information age Industry, Stephen joined Makerere University this year. He is a First Year Bachelor of Library and Information Science (BLIS) as a self sponsored evening student to supplement on the Diploma in Librarianship which he acquired in 1986 at the same University.

Stephen has been a member of the Special Libraries Association since 2007 belongs to the Petroleum and Energy Resources Division courtesy of the PERD Board members.